

Solution Injunctions

by
Professor Alan Woodlief

Across

2. PRIOR RESTRAINT—A disfavored injunction of speech before it occurs
6. TRO—It sounds like the result of many of Mike Tyson's fights; Evander Holyfield might have wanted one to keep Tyson away from his ear
11. MERITS—The likelihood of success on the _____ can be a factor in the decision whether to grant an injunction
13. TRESPASS—A frequent target of injunctions - unlawful entry on another's property
15. BALANCING—What a court does to the hardships or what a gymnast does on a beam
17. UNCLEAR HANDS—They might prevent you from obtaining an injunction or require the use of soap and water
20. PERMANENT—A _____ injunction is issued after a full hearing and resolves the matter

Down

1. PROHIBITORY—An injunction ordering a defendant not to do a specific act
3. IRREPARABLE—_____ harm
4. PRELIMINARY—A _____ injunction is issued before a full hearing
5. PERRY MASON—1950's TV attorney famous for prompting on-stand confessions
7. RESTRAINING—Temporary _____ Order
8. STATUS QUO—The existing state of things
9. INADEQUATE—Where the property threatened has special sentimental value, damages are likely _____
10. INJUNCTION—An order directing a defendant to do or not do certain things
12. TEN—Maximum number of days a TRO typically lasts
14. EQUITY—He who seeks _____ must do _____ (same word)
16. MANDATORY—An injunction ordering a defendant to do something affirmatively
18. LA LAW—California jurisprudence
19. BOND—A super spy or a common pre-injunction requirement